

Meditations on the Line of Harmony

Frances Steinberg

Pragmatic psychologist Tucker McCoy has filled her post-divorce life in New Mexico with a successful child abuse practice, martial arts training, friends, and colleagues.

When a meditation class at her dojo triggers a series of intense visions, she becomes enmeshed in a whirlwind of mystical mysticetes, messenger hawks, visitors from other dimensions, jumps into other people's heads, and prophesies of destruction.

Tucker seeks a line of harmony which will balance her insight and intellect, love and independence, personal path and planetary well-being.
